

Wedding Day Emergency Kit

*A checklist of things every bride should have on hand on her wedding day.
Be prepared!*

Grooming

- hand lotion, wet wipes
- tissues
- cotton balls, cotton swabs
- makeup
- makeup remover
- nail polish in shade worn
- nail polish remover
- nail file
- tweezers
- small grooming scissors
- small hand towel
- lint brush
- curling iron, hot rollers
- hairdryer
- brush, comb
- hairspray, hair gel
- bobby pins, hair elastics, barrettes
- headband or clips for pulling hair back while applying makeup
- toothbrush and toothpaste, floss
- mouthwash
- baby powder
- deodorant
- perfume

Attire

- “throwaway” garter
- clear nail polish for runs in pantyhose
- extra earring backs
- extra buttons
- flat shoes for the reception
- iron
- extra pantyhose
- safety pins and a sewing kit with thread the color of bride’s and attendants’ dresses
- masking tape or sewing tape (for last-minute ripped hems)
- small scissors (for thread)
- club soda or other stain removal solutions

Health/Medical

- antacid
- antihistamine, cold remedy, any prescription medications
- aspirin, pain relievers
- bandages
- upset stomach remedy
- feminine hygiene products (tampons, panty liners, etc.)

Miscellaneous

- extra copies of directions to reception
- breath mints
- cell phone and home phone numbers of all wedding participants
- contact information for all vendors

- snacks
- cooler with juice, sodas, and bottled water
- champagne, glasses
- small flashlight
- folding utility knife
- duct tape (fixes everything)
- _____
- _____
- _____

dirobertlawrence.com